Dinner

Greetings from our guest: Peter Carol from OSSTF spoke ominously about outsourcing – putting unqualified instructors in the classroom = saves the board money.

Introduction of guest speaker:

Alf Doherty introduced Chris Colton who gave a history of Canadian aviation and spoke about the RCAF Halifax Bomber (there were two Halifax crew members in our audience) and the RCAF Memorial Museum in Trenton of which he is the executive director. The Museum is expanding tremendously right now. Chris gained his pilots license at age 16, has flown planes as large as the Hercules and attained a rank of Lieutenant Colonel.

Alf Doherty thanked the speaker.

Edna Madill thanked the servers at the hall.

Joe Lovsin introduced the new RTO executive.

Lenore Davidson announced door prizes and draws.
